HIGHLIGHTS

HONG KONG, CHINA

The metropolis of Hong Kong is well known for its amazing food, nightlife and great value shopping. Head to the street markets, such as the Ladies Market or Stanley Market, to grab a bargain, unique souvenirs and soak up the local culture. You will be spoilt for choice for cuisine in Hong Kong, from local Chinese delicacies through to dining experiences from world-class chefs. Take the Star Ferry across the harbour or head to "The Peak" and take in the view of this incredible harbour city.

TOKYO, JAPAN

As the world's largest metropolitan centre, Tokyo is an amazing and culturally rich urban adventure. The city sights and transport are signposted well in English and local meals can be surprisingly affordable. From the ancient ruins of Edo Castle to the soaring heights of the Tokyo City Hall, this has always been a city of grand architecture. It's also a city with first-rate shopping options and more than a few outstanding dining districts. Head to Tokyo Tower for stunning views over the city or the Imperial Palace for a brisk morning walk.

OSAKA, JAPAN

Though Osaka has no shortage of tourist sites, it is the city itself that is the greatest attraction. Home to some of Japan's best food, most unique fashions, and warmest locals, Osaka does not beg to be explored — it demands it. More than anywhere else in Japan, it rewards the impulsive turn down an interesting side street or the chat with a random stranger. People do not come here to see the city, they come to experience it.
