HIGHLIGHTS

Singapore

Where two worlds collide, Singapore is a utopian island that combines pristine, contemporary and modern architecture with the majestic wilderness of the rainforest. The young country's recent boom in popularity with its multicultural population has drawn people from all over the world and holds one of the world's busiest ports.

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Immerse yourself in the vivid lights of the bustling city – Kuala Lumpur – The capital city of Malaysia that is symbolised by the Petronas Twin Towers, which holds the title of being the world's tallest twin skyscrapers. A shopaholic and foodie's paradise, with a blend of Malayan, Indian and Chinese cultures.

Penang, Malaysia

Rediscover old-world Asia in the humble streets of Penang. Be sure to give the UNESCO Site, George Town, a visit along with the finest kampongs, beaches, temples and flea markets that the 'Pearl of the Orient' has to offer.

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Muscat, Oman

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Dubai screams out glitz and glam and calls to those who crave the finer things in life – She is certainly not one to disappoint. Nonetheless, beyond this façade, you can find the history of desert's Bedouin past, before it boomed from economic development, in hotspots such as Heritage Village which contain preserved buildings around the creek.

Muscat, Oman

Walk through a reminiscence of Arabia by visiting the humble yet picturesque city that is Muscat. Guarding the entrance of the city you will be confronted by Forts Mutrah, Jalali and Mirani. The storybook city is embellished with forts, castles, mountains and ocean.

HOTELS

Mandarin Oriental Singapore

The hotel holds a grandiose 5-star luxury rating with its contemporary elegance and subtle oriental traits. The hotel lies in the heart of Marina Bay – Singapore's main dining and entertainment district - and is only minutes from the central business district.

LONDON

Radisson Blu Edwardian Berkshire

In a prime location 50 metres from the British Museum, this hotel sits in the heart of the West End with Oxford Street, Covent Garden and Soho all on the doorstep. Close by, Tottenham Court Road and Holborn tube stations provide direct access to the city.
